FIRST TIME GRANDPA

What a thrill. When my first and second daughters got married a few years ago the thought that they are probably going to have children hit me. I told myself I'm too young to be a grandpa. These girls should consider what their getting into giving birth to children that will have a grandfather so young! Just the thought of me being so old as to have children with children of their own was too much for my tender young brain. Who was I kidding? I suppose it should have dawned on me the time I was picking up my youngest daughter from cheerleading practice a few years ago and one of her friends called over to her "hey Mary, your grandfather's here to pick you up".

Jaime and Shawn had a beautiful baby girl on April 6th 2009. Alyssa Grace is her name and it gives a whole new meaning to father's day for me. It's like double dads day.
